

Who can study in New Zealand without a parent under the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students

¹ From 1 July 2011 signatories must have approval from the Code Administrator to enrol 'Young international students' as those in Years 1-8 of a school or aged 13 and under if they are enrolled in any other provider.

² From 31 December 2011 school hostels must have approval from the Code Administrator to enrol Young international students.